Biografia

Seu nome completo de batismo é Sebastião Pena Marcião, mais tarde incorporado o nome Tapajós e foi como Sebastião Tapajós, que se tornou conhecido como um dos guitarristas mais virtuosos de todos os tempos. Conhecido em muitos países, é considerado um mestre acadêmico que criou uma vertente da guitarra brasileira, misturando o clássico e popular ao regional e folclore da Amazônia. Com mais de 60 anos de carreira, suas composições são constantemente regravadas em todo o mundo, (algumas delas apresentadas neste trabalho). Sua extensa discografia, com mais de 90 álbuns entre composições próprias, clássicos e participações, tem sido republicado permanentemente em vários países, seja em seu formato original ou em compilações e pode ser encontrado em milhares de sites na Internet. O interesse mundial no trabalho de Sebastião Tapajós lança um foco de atenção sobre a cultura brasileira, sobre a Amazônia e, especialmente, sobre o estado do Pará, ao qual o artista dedica especial deferência associando-se ao próprio nome o nome do Rio que atravessa a terra a partir da qual partiu para conquistar o sucesso mundial e onde vive até hoje: o Rio Tapajós.

Infância e primeiras influências

Sebastião Tapajós, terceiro filho de sete irmãos, nasceu em 16 de abril de 1942, em um barco no Rio Surubiú, um braço do Rio Amazonas, deixando a “Casa Primavera”, o mercado de seu pai no distrito de Alenquer, para Santarém no Estado do Pará. Ainda um menino mudou-se para esta cidade, na confluência dos Rios Tapajós e Amazonas. Segundo ele, adotou o sobrenome “Tapajós” em homenagem ao rio que banha Santarém. Não é mera coincidência. A origem e a natureza da Amazônia vieram a ter enorme influência sobre seu trabalho.

Sebastião teve uma infância comum como a de milhões de crianças ribeirinhas brasileiras. Ele fez a escola primária no grupo escolar Frei Ambrosio e na escola secundária no Colégio Dom Armando, ali mesmo em Santarém. Mas ele não era uma criança comum. Seu ouvido muito especial foi influenciado desde tenra idade pela guitarra que seu pai tocava ao anoitecer. Proprietário de um comércio de têxteis, alimentos, higiene e produtos de limpeza, medicamentos, além das atividades de plantações, em geral juta, malva e criação de gado. O seu “Marcião” juntava-se aos empregados no violão e tocava à vontade. De acordo com seu relato, Sebastião consertou o violão do pai quando abriu, devido à ação do clima quente e úmido da Amazônia.

É evidente que nos anos 40 e 50, ele foi muito influenciado pelo que ouviu no rádio e no gramofone de manivela. Naqueles tempos, quem não ficaria encantado com Dilermando Reis, Luiz Bonfá, Pixinguinha e Garoto?

Nos anos 50, Sebastião começou a estudar música formalmente com um professor particular, João Fona. Mas naquele momento, ele não se identificou com a teoria, o que ele realmente queria era tocar. E entre dez e doze anos participou em Santarém de um grupo que tocou em casas noturnas, formado por músicos profissionais chamados “Os Mocorongos”, quando ele começou a faturar alguns caches pela participação no grupo.

Havia, em Belém, a capital do estado do Pará, outro grupo com o mesmo nome. Para lá Tapajós mudou-se em 1958 a convite do professor Gelmirez Melo e Silva, fundador do grupo homônimo, onde, já nos anos 60, estudou teoria musical e harmonia com os professores Ribamar e Drago.

Em 1962, pela gravadora “Mocambo”, gravou o primeiro álbum, denominado “baile de estudantes” e, assim, iniciou sua vida profissional, apresentando-se em clubes sociais de Belém, recebendo modestos cachês. Neste álbum, Sebastião aparece com o nome oficial de seu registro de nascimento. A capa relaciona o nome das faixas e nomes dos membros do grupo de jovens participantes no álbum e as respectivas escolas onde estudaram.

Em 1963, formou um novo grupo com músicos e cantores profissionais da noite e gravou o Long Play “apresentando Sebastião Tapajós e seu conjunto”, trabalho que antecipou sua brilhante carreira como instrumentista no Brasil e no exterior. Neste mesmo ano, participou de um curso de técnica de guitarra por 33 dias no Rio de Janeiro com o professor Othon Salleiro.

Ainda em 1963 participou de cenas do filme “Marajó, barreira do mar”, do diretor Líbero Luxardo, um dos pioneiros do cinema na região amazônica, tocando músicas do maestro Waldemar Henrique. Neste trabalho, a imprensa destacou: “os solos de guitarra de Sebastião Tapajós, paraense considerado um dos maiores guitarristas do mundo”.

Em 1965, ele fez uma participação especial no filme “um dia qualquer”, também de Líbero Luxardo, interpretando as canções “Tamba-tajá” e “Uirapuru”, do maestro Waldemar Henrique e “pregão de cheiro” e “toadas de Boi Bumbá” de Bruno de Menezes.

As gravações desses dois álbuns, de 1962 e 1963, relembram o lindo período da juventude dos anos 60, com a interpretação de faixas que marcaram positivamente esse tempo, hoje quase inocente, transportam-nos para o passado, para uma década generosa, em que as músicas embalaram tanto os sonhos da juventude mais conservadora como daquela mais “avançada”, mais extravagante, rotulada de transviada, amante do rock’n’roll.

Os álbuns “Baile de Estudantes” e “Apresentando Sebastião Tapajós e seu conjunto” e as apresentações na TV Marajoara apontaram e antecederam uma jornada que viria a ser vitoriosa, com Sebastião Tapajós tornando-se um violonista reconhecido e consagrado no Brasil e no exterior, um dos melhores do mundo, quer pelo público como pela crítica especializada nacional e internacional.

Carreira, apresentações e prestígio internacional

A Europa foi o próximo passo natural, onde Sebastião foi em 1964. Lá, graduou-se no Conservatório Nacional de música de Lisboa, Portugal, tendo como um dos mestres do violão o catalão Emílio Pujol. Na Espanha, no Instituto de cultura hispânica, ele estudou com o famoso mestre Sainz de la Maza. Foram feitas apresentações nesses dois países.

Voltando ao Brasil, foi convidado a lecionar no Conservatório Carlos Gomes, em Belém a disciplina de violão clássico, onde permaneceu até julho de 1967. Neste mesmo ano, data seu primeiro álbum solo “violão é... Tapajós”, da Philips, mudou para o Rio de Janeiro, a fim de dedicar-se à pesquisa de música folclórica e popular. Logo depois, morou em Berlim por algum tempo, retornando ao Rio de Janeiro, onde permaneceu até 1997, depois, voltando a Santarém, onde vive até hoje.

Gilson Peranzetta, Sebastião Tapajós, Sivuca e Maurício Einhorn.

A partir disso, além do reconhecimento no Brasil, de suas magníficas performances e gravações com os maiores nomes da música popular brasileira, sua carreira internacional se firma definitivamente e sua produção como artista torna-se incansável e inalcançável.

Apresentou-se por todo o Brasil e levou ao exterior como convidados ou dividindo o palco, inúmeros artistas brasileiros entre eles: Zimbo Trio (no teatro da Filarmônica de Berlim), Baden Powell, Altamiro Carrilho, Sivuca, Maurício Einhorn, Hermeto Pascoal, Waldir Azevedo, Paulo Moura, Joel do Bandolim, Danilo Caymmi, Jane Duboc, Maria Creusa, Nilson Chaves, Arismar do Espírito Santo, Ney Conceição, Robertinho Silva, Gilson Peranzetta e os percussionistas Pedro Sorongo e Djalma Correia. Ele também tocou com o americano Gerry Mulligan (em Bruxelas e Roma), com o argentino Astor Piazzolla e Cacho Tirao (em um duo de guitarras em Buenos Aires), com o canadense Oscar Peterson (em Bruxelas e Roma), com o cubano Paquito D’Rivera (na Europa, Argentina e Brasil) e com o espanhol Paco de Lucia (na Europa).

Também apresentou-se em recitais e gravou canções de Cartola, Ary Barroso, Pixinguinha, maestro Guerra-Peixe, Radamés Gnattali e Villa-Lobos.

Em 1995, em parceria com o arquiteto e amigo Billy Blanco compôs a música “Desencanto”, para a trilha sonora da novela “história de amor”, com direção geral de Ricardo Waddington, tema da personagem Sheyla Bueno, vivida pela atriz Lília Cabral.

Além de instrumentista habilidoso, técnico e criativo, é autor de muitas canções, em parceria com Marilena Amaral, Paulinho Tapajós, Billy Blanco, Antônio Carlos Maranhão, Avelino V. do Vale e de outros compositores. Suas canções foram gravadas por inúmeros intérpretes brasileiros como Emílio Santiago, Miltinho, Pery Ribeiro, Jane Duboc, Maria Creuza, Fafá de Belém, Nilson Chaves, Ana Lengruher, Cristina Caetano, bem como cubano Leo Brouwer e argentino Cacho Tirao.

O italiano Carlo Domeniconi, um dos guitarristas líderes do século XX, compôs um concerto em homenagem a Sebastião Tapajós. Ocupando a cadeira número 14, Tapajós ainda é membro fundador da Academia de Artes e Letras de Santarém.

Segundo o professor-doutor em Filosofia e especialista em Jazz Valter Alnis Bezerra, “o estilo de jogo de Sebastião Tapajós é vigoroso e incisivo, eo som que tira do instrumento está cheio e encorpado. Ele gosta de usar efeitos percussivos, variações de timbre (do som mais doce, tocando perto da boca do instrumento, o mais metálico, perto do cavalete do instrumento), sons harmônicos, repetição rítmica de acordes em ostinato e outros recursos.”

Anos 70

Em 1970, ele foi para a Argentina em turnê, onde gravou, até 1974, oito álbuns. Em 1971, acompanhando Paulinho da viola e Maria Betânia, ele excursionou pela Alemanha, Holanda, Áustria e Bélgica, resultando em um novo álbum “Nova Bossa Nova”. Em troca, ele assinou um contrato para vinte concertos no ano seguinte, da Alemanha a Israel, além de gravar outros discos.

Em 1973, ele esteve na Alemanha em uma turnê solo, onde gravou o álbum “Bienvenido Tapajós”. Em 1974, mais uma vez no exterior, gravou o álbum “Guitarra Fantástica”, trabalho premiado como o “Álbum Estrangeiro Mais Vendido no Ano” pela RCA na Alemanha. Em 1975, ele lançou o álbum “guitarra Latina”, premiado três anos mais tarde por críticos alemães especializados como o “Melhor Álbum Estrangeiro”. Em 1976, ele lança o álbum “Terra”. Em 1977 os álbuns “clássicos da América do Sul” e o álbum “guitarra & amigos”. Em 1977, escreveu a trilha sonora do filme “a força de Xangô”, dirigido por Iberê Cavalcanti.

Em 1978, representou a Alemanha como convidada no Festival Internacional de música, promovido pela Holanda, Sebastião Tapajós vive hoje na cidade de Santarém (Pará, Brasil) em uma casa no meio das árvores, nas margens do Rio Tapajós, casado com Tanya Maria Souza de Figueiredo Marcião, sua atual esposa. Em abril de 2017, foi criado o “Instituto Sebastião Tapajós”, com o intuito de disseminar e sistematizar a produção musical de Sebastião Tapajós entre outros projetos.

Discografia

Os discos listados estão em ordem cronológica. Quase todos os álbuns lançados nas décadas de 60, 70 e 80 foram remasterizados e relançados em formato CD. Alguns discos chegaram ao mercado simultaneamente em diversos países tais como Alemanha, Japão, Espanha etc. com capas diferentes. Por esta razão alguns títulos aparecem repetidos. Alguns destes discos tiveram edições limitadas e são considerados raros. Sebastião Tapajós está catalogando seu trabalho para a remasterização de todas as suas gravações.
